

March 31, 2023

Asset Management One Co., Ltd.

Announcement of Organizational Changes

Asset Management One Co., Ltd. (Chiyoda City, Tokyo; President & CEO: Akira Sugano; hereinafter “AM-One”) hereby announces that we will reform our organization as of April 1, 2023. Details are as follows.

1. “Sustainable Investment Group” will be established in the Investment Division.
2. The name of the “Responsible Investment Group” of the Investment Division will be changed to “Stewardship Group”.
3. “Customer Experience Promotion Office” will be established in the Planning Division.
4. “Preparatory Office for collaboration with Mizuho Trust & Banking Co.” will be established in the Institutional Marketing and Planning Group of the Institutional Marketing Division.

Amid the changing society due to the advancement of various technologies, the expectation and responsibility of asset management companies which are responsible for the asset building of investors are increasing. In order to make the most of the capabilities as an industry leader, AM-One will provide the best services to everyone by flexibly taking organizational measures, thus aiming to become an asset management company which will contribute to the sustainable society and the future of our customers.

Please see the link below for disclaimer: <http://www.am-one.co.jp/english/disclaimer>

AM-one organizational chart as of April 1st, 2023

