

Asset Management One joins RE100 as the first asset management company in Japan

Asset Management One Co., Ltd. is proud to announce that they are the first asset management company in Japan to join RE100, a global initiative led by The Climate Group in partnership with CDP that brings together large, influential businesses committed to 100% renewable power. Asset Management One has made an international public commitment to sourcing all its electricity consumption from renewable energy by 2050, and will contribute to accelerating renewable energy adoption.

Climate change is a key challenge to overcome in creating a sustainable society. Asset Management One has committed to transitioning to renewable electricity on its own, while also exercising engagement to help investee companies tackle climate change as an asset manager exercising fiduciary responsibility.

As part of its long-term commitment to sustainability, Asset Management One will continue to drive renewable energy expansion and support for carbon neutrality to build a more sustainable world.
