

Feb 13, 2026

Asset Management One Co., Ltd.

Notice Regarding Suspicious Mobile Applications in Google Play Store and Apple App Store

Suspicious mobile applications using the name “Asset Management One”, “AM-One” or names similar thereto, have been identified.

Asset Management One Co., Ltd. (the “Company”) does not provide any mobile application whatsoever. Any application that provokes any association with the Company, or suggests any affiliation with the Company, is totally no relation to the Company.

These suspicious applications may be used to solicit investments or request the transfer of funds and therefore may be connected to fraudulent activities. Investors are strongly advised to exercise the utmost caution and refrain from downloading, using, or transferring any funds in connection with any application bearing the Company’s name or involving suspicious investment solicitations.

The Company will continue to work closely with relevant parties and take all necessary measures to prevent harm to investors.

